CHARLES AND MARY ANN GOODNIGHT RANCH

Charles Goodnight and business partner John Adair established the JA Ranch, the first cattle ranch in the Texas Panhandle in 1876. In 1887, Goodnight established the Goodnight-Thayer Cattle Company and built a Victorian-style ranch house. Mary Ann played a critical role in the ranch's operation and preserving the American bison, descendants of which can be seen in the pasture adjacent to the house.
