

A large part of your work as a historic preservation officer will be focused on building preservation, but as previously mentioned, historic preservation encompasses so much more than just the built environment. Below you will find a brief description of some other areas of preservation that you will likely encounter in your post as well as some resources to help you with them.

Archeology

Archeology Publications & Resources

<https://www.thc.texas.gov/preserve/archeology/archeology-publications-resources>

Texas Archeology Month – Great opportunity to host an event!

<https://www.thc.texas.gov/preserve/projects-and-programs/texas-archeology-month>

Cemetaries

THC Preserving Historic Cemetaries

Webinar: Apply for HTC Designation <http://www.thc.texas.gov/get-involved/training-consulting#cem> (designations like this lead to heritage tourism)

Cultural Landscapes

<https://www.thc.texas.gov/preserve/buildings-and-property/cultural-landscapes>

THC Texas Treasure Business Award

<https://www.thc.texas.gov/preserve/projects-and-programs/texas-treasure-business-award>

Other Resources:

Legacy Businesses from the City of San Antonio

<https://www.sanantonio.gov/historic/Programs/Culture/LegacyBusiness>

The Texas Freedom Colonies Project

<http://www.thetexasfreedomcoloniesproject.com/>

NPS LGBTQ Theme Study

<https://www.nps.gov/subjects/tellingallamericansstories/lgbtqthemestudy.htm>