

FANTHORP INN

— STATE HISTORIC SITE —

Anderson, Texas

TEXAS HISTORICAL COMMISSION
REAL PLACES TELLING REAL STORIES

Storied Sites of Texas

FANTHORP INN

Restored to its 1850s glory, come walk through what was once a stagecoach stop and inn. Located in Anderson 30 miles southeast of Bryan/College Station, the inn was built in 1834 by English immigrant Henry Fanthorp. Notable guests include Sam Houston, Zachary Taylor, Robert E. Lee, and many more. Step into the inn's past and gain a true sense of travelers' experiences in Texas in the 1850s.

---

579 S. Main St. | Anderson, TX 77830
936-873-2633 | fanthorp-inn@thc.texas.gov
visitfanthorpinn.com

---

Located off State Highway 90, approximately 30 minutes from Bryan College Station and an hour and a half from Houston.

FIND US ON

thc.texas.gov